

ROGUE STATES

A VOCABARET SPECIAL by ADRIAN HOAD-REDDICK

Letterbank the following words into names of countries. A letter bank is a type of anagram where all the letters of one word (the "bank") can be used as many times as desired (minimum of once each) to make a new word or phrase. For example, IMPS is a bank of MISSISSIPPI, and TAHITI is a letterbank of HAITI. The number in parenthesis indicates the number of letters in the answer.
